A perusal of the order passed by the appellate authority (Annexure-P/1) dated 5-3-84 reveals that the licence of the petitioner for keeping gun in his possession was suspended on account of misuse of the gun.

The petitioner has not been able to show that how he is entitled for the revival of the licence in his favour. Since there were allegations against him regarding misuse of the gun and that order was passed in the year 1982 against which an appeal was preferred and the same was dismissed by the Commissioner vide its order dated 5-3-84, in the circumstances, I do not find any justification to invoke extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, therefore, the writ petition is dismissed.

In view of this order, I.A. No.4161/2004 stands disposed of.
